v.) Civil Action No. 03-494
OFFICER CHERRY, ET AL.,) Defendants.)

Once the jury panel has been placed in the courtroom, the Deputy Clerk will administer the following oath to the panel, en banc:

Once the oath has been administered, the Courtroom Deputy will then address the panel as follows:

1. "The caption of this case is Anthony Sides v. Officer Cherry, Officer Brown, Officer Rush and Officer Juliani at Civil Action No. 03-494. Do any of you know anything about this case?"
2. "The PLAINTIFF in this case is Anthony Sides. Do any of you know Mr. Sides?"
3. "The DEFENDANTS in this case are Officer Cherry, Officer Brown, Officer Rush and Officer Juliani. Are any of you, or any member of your immediate family, an employee or former employee, of the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections? Do any of you know any of the defendants?"
4. "The PLAINTIFF is represented by Attorneys Emily Ayoub and Sarah Heineman of the law firm of Schnader, Harrison, Segal and Lewis."

5. "The DEFENDANTS are represented by Attorney Tracey Wilson of the Office of the Pennsylvania Attorney General."
6. "Do any of you know these attorneys? Have they, or any member of their firms, ever represented you or a member of your immediate family, if you know?"
7. "Do any of you have any difficulty in seeing or hearing, or understanding the English language, that would impair your full attention to the trial?"
8. "Do any of you take medication that might make you drowsy or prevent you from giving your full concentration during the course of this trial?"
9. "Do any of you have any physical problems that would make it difficult for you to sit as a juror in this case?"
10. "Witnesses in this case may be any or all of the following:

Anthony Sides
J.A. Martin
James Murray
Sean Jackson
Kenneth Pate
James Cherry
Jerome Brown
Roger Rush
Richard Juliani
Lori Lapina
Daniel Burns
Patrick Nickalow
Ronald Younkin

Do you know any of these witnesses?"

After the above questions have been asked of the jury, en banc, the jurors will be seated in the jury box. A panel of 13 jurors will be seated in the courtroom. Individual voir dire will then begin in the jury deliberation room in the order in which the jurors were seated. Pursuant to Local Rule 47.1(C), the Courtroom Deputy will ask each juror the following:

1. "Where do you live (city and county only)?"
2. "What is your occupation and for whom do you work?"
3. "Are you married? If so, what is your spouse's occupation and for whom does he or she work?"
4. "Do you have any children? Are they in school or employed? If employed, for what do they do and for whom do they work?"
5. "Do you own or rent your current home?"
6. "Do you have an attorney? If so, what is your attorney's name? Have you ever had the occasion to use an attorney? If so, for what?"
7. "Have you ever been a party to a lawsuit?"
 - (a) plaintiff or defendant?
 - (b) type of lawsuit and result?
 - (c) effect on jury service?
8. "What is your educational background?"
9. "Have any of the questions asked brought to your mind anything that you wish to volunteer?"
10. "Is there any reason you couldn't sit on this jury?"

At the conclusion of the individual voir dire, the Deputy will announce a short break to allow counsel to consider the jurors' responses. A total of six (6) strikes will be made. The parties will make alternating strikes with the plaintiff proceeding first. Each challenge is to be labeled (i.e. "P-1" is plaintiff's first challenge; "D-2" is defendant's second challenge). Those stricken jurors will be removed from the jury box. The remaining panel will be the jury selected for this trial.

When seating a jury panel, the first seven (7) names from the panel of 13 seated is the PRIMARY panel. This means that if any of the first seven (7) jurors are selected for this jury, they are to remain in their seats, with the remaining jurors to fill in the rest of the panel.

If, for example, jurors 1, 3, 5 & 8 are selected, as are jurors 10, 12 & 13, the panel will be seated in the following manner:

- Juror #1 remains juror #1.
- Juror #8 becomes juror #2.
- Juror #3 remains juror #3.
- Juror #10 becomes juror #4.
- Juror #5 remains juror #5.
- Juror #12 becomes juror #6.
- Juror #13 becomes juror #7.

Once the jury is seated in the jury box and the Judge is on the bench, but prior to the beginning of testimony, the Courtroom Deputy will administer to the jury the following oath:

"Do each of you solemnly swear or affirm that you will well and truly try the matters in issue now on trial, and render a true verdict, according to the law and the evidence, and that you do so under the pains and penalties of perjury."

After the entire case has been presented to the jury and they prepare to deliberate on the issues presented, the Deputy Clerk will be sworn in as the Bailiff by the Law Clerk present, who will administer the following oath:

"You do solemnly swear to keep this jury together in some private and convenient place, and not to permit any person to speak to, or communicate with them, nor to do so yourself unless by order of the court or to ask whether they have agreed on a verdict, and to return them into court when they have so agreed, or when ordered by the Court, so help you God."

BY THE COURT:

Hon. Gary L. Lancaster,
United States District Judge
